To pry beneath the visage of the external world
Opens the mind to possibilities beyond the scope
Of common experience; the expansive nature
Of the mental plane inviting one to explore the Mysterious lands that exist within; the limitless
Expanse of the mind's canvas painting realms of A dreamlike quality; drawing from a lifetime of Memory to create something of a timeless quality;
The intricate details imprinting themselves upon
Thought, illuminating the mental landscape with Vibrant hues of a mysterious nature; to experience
Firsthand the wonders of such a place opens
The mind to endless possibilities; the liberation of Thought contributing to an awakening of fertile ideas;
The more receptive the mind, the more refined certain Ideas will be; that which springs from the distillation of Abstract thought, bearing the fruit of one's endeavors.
